NEW JUSTICES IN THE MINOR COURTS. THE MAYOR'S CANDIDATES CONFIRMED-A COMBINA-TION BETWEEN THE REPUBLICANS AND THE

APOLIO HALL DEMOCRATS. The Board of Aldermen held a sr ecial sesdep on Saturday. It had been rumored, rarly in the day, that a combination had been effects at between the Re-publican and Apolic Hall Aide men, and that certain ames of candidates for the of see of Police Justice would be presented to the Boar, by the Mayor, and some of those which vers rejected at the last meeting and powerful portrait of the great tragedian, executed of the Board would be again taken up and confirmed. When the Board met at 3:30 p.m., the chamber was filled with spectators. The Board we's called to order by President Vance. The Clerk read a communication from the Mayor nominating Col. Bankson T. Morgan for Police Justice. Alderman Merris moved that the communication be received and the nemination confirmed. Alderman Billings seconded the nomination. Alderman McCafferty moved that the minunication be received and printed in the minutes. Adderman Morris hoped that the motion of Alderman McCafferty would not prevail. They owed it to the public that they proceed to confirm without delay. Alderman McCafferty said that the previous nominations had been laid over for the purpose of ascertaining who the nominees were. He had never heard of Mr. Morgan before, and he thought it only just that members should ascertain the fitness of candidates before voting. Alderman Billings believed they should take action. The matter had been Selayed too long. Mr. McCafferty's motion to receive and print to the minutes was lost by the following vote: Ayes Flausgar, Kehr, Roch, Lysaght, McCafferty, Residy, Van Schalek-7. Kays-Vance, Billings, Cooper, Clausen, Palconer, Monhelmer, Morris, Ottendorfer-s.

Alderman Morris then moved that the nomination of Mr. Morgan be confirmed. This was seconded by Alderman Hillings, and the vote was taken as follows:

Yeas-Vance, Billings, Cooper, Ciausen, Paleone Monbetter, Morris, Ottendorfer, Van Schaick-e. Noys-Fiansgan, Kehr, Koch, Lysaght, McCafferty, Relly-of-Alderman Morris then moved that the Board reco sider its vote on Thursday, when James T. Kilbreth was rejected as a nominee for Police Justice. This was carried by the same vote. Alderman Morris moved that Mr. Kilbreth be consirmed. This was seconded by Alderman Billings. Alderman McCafferty wished to know of Alderman Van Schaick if Mr. Kilbreth was a law pariner of Althe proper person to forman Billings thought he was the proper person to forman the information. Mr. Kilherth was not a partner of his. He was a member of the Har Association, and a Democrat, but he would nevertheless take pleasure in voting for him. Mr. Kilbreth was confirmed by a vote of 9 to 6, as already given.

Another communication from the Mayor nominated Buther H. Birby for Police Justice. This was confirmed by the same vote. Adderman Morris moved to reconsider the rejection of Marcus Otterbourg. Carried.
Mr. Otterbourg was confirmed by the same vote. A communication from the Mayor nominated Charles A.
Frammer for Police Justice. He also was confirmed.
The vote rejecting Benjamin C. Wandell was reconsidwired, and he was confirmed by the same vote. A communication from the Mayor nominated Frank S. Smith for Police Justice. Adderman Kech wanted to know who Fmith was. The vota rejecting Thomas D. Sherwood on Thursday was reconsidered, and he was confirmed by the same vote. The vota rejecting Thomas D. Sherwood on Thursday was reconsidered, and he was confirmed by the same vote. The vota rejecting Thomas D. Sherwood on Thursday was reconsidered, and he was confirmed by the same vote. Mr. Masnire was confirmed hy a vote of 11 to 4. Addermen Kehr and Keeb voting in the aftirmative. The Board then adjourned. Soon after the adjournment of the Board, Messra, Morgan, Kilbreth, Otterbourg, Kasmire, and Frammer, called on the Rayor and were sworn into office, and received their certificates of confirmation. The others will be sworn in to-day. The terms of service of the new Justices are ne follows: Morgan and Kilbreth, ten years; Bixtyjand Otterbourg, nine years; Frammer and Wandell, eight years; Stotik and Sherwood, seven years; Murray and Kasmire, eix years.

The new Justices will enter upon their duties on elecderman Billings. Alderman Billings thought he was the proper person to furnish the information. Mr. Kil-

Nears; Smith and Sherwood, seven years; Murray and Rasmire, six years.

The new Justices will enter upon their duties on election day, the law directing that they shall do so on the second Tuesday succeeding their continuation. The Police Justices supersoried are Edward J. Shandley, Thomas A. Ledwith, John Cax, Joseph Dowling, Edward Hogan, John Scott, John McQuade, and James E. Coulter, Justice Butler H. Bixby is the only one of the old Justice reappointed. Apollo Hall obtains three of the Dastice reappointed. Apollo Hall obtains three of the new Justices, Messes. Bixby, Smith, and Murray. A majority of the present Police Justices will contest the constitutionality of the act removing them. William C. Beach and the Hon. Francis Kernan have been employed, and the case will be taken into the courts as seen as an opportunity is afforded. An injunction will probably be applied for to prevent the new appointees from assuming the duties of the position.

THE GREAT BOND FORGERIES.

Mr. Allen of the District-Attorney's office, to whom the task of working up the recent bond forgeries has been confided, is applying himself with carnes ness and vigor to bring the perpetrators to justice. The magnitude of the forgeries is as yet conjectural, for the spuriousness of the bonds is only detected after careful examination. So far as known, those who have been deceived by the forgeries are: The Trust and Indemnity Company of No. 52 Broadway, $75,000; Haskins & Braine, Wall st., $00,000; W. A. Guest & Co., Nassau-st., amount unknown; S. V. White & Bros., amount unknown; Alvin Saunders and John A. Hardenburgh of No. 12 Broadway, $45,000; Obrig & Co. $10,000; Knick-erbocker & Co., $10,000, and Wm. M. Miller, President of the Buffalo, New-York and Eric Railroad, amount unknown. Several banks and trust companies are also, it is said, among the sufferers, but they have declined to acquaint Mr. Allen with their losses. The operations of the gang, it is believed, extended into Philadelphia and Boston, but some time must clapse before the full extent of the forgeries can be even approximately arrived at.

To-day, probably, Recorder Hackett will give his decision as to admitting to ball Andrew L. Roberts, and Valentine alias Frank Gleason, who were committed to Valentine alias Frank Gleason, who were committed to the Tombs on Friday last, upon the charge of counterfeiting bonds of the New York Central, and the New York Enflaid and Eric Bailroads, and also as to the request of prisoners counsel, to be permitted to see the names of the persons examined before the Grand Jury, and their testineony.

Gleason, who taiked fer a few toinuites with a Traist NE reporter on Saturday, in the Tombs, declared his arrest to be a gross outrage and a biackmailing proceeding on the part of Mrs. Pettus. "She often blowed what she would do." He said, "I was arrested and not told the charge against me. I did not know Roberte was niveady arrested. For the time I was confined in the Pifth Precent Station I was not allowed to communicate with any of my friends, and I understand that it was only after much persistence my counsel was permitted to see me. They have nothing against me."

Another prisoner is believed to be George Wilkes, confined in one of the city police stations. Why he was not usuagned with Roberts and Gleason, and why Olmstead, the alleged engraver of the plates, who is guarded in confinement by Pinkerton's men, has not been brought forward, is not known. Twenty thousand dollars has seen placed in Mr. Allen's hands, it is reported, to defray the expenses of prosecuting the matter and ferreting that the rest of the game.

NO COMPROMISE IN THE PHELPS CASE. A Attorney-General Barlow was called on by a reporter of THE TRIBUNE, on Saturday, and questioned relative to the statements that the State authorities were willing to compromise the case of Charles H. Phelps, the defaulting cashier in the State Treasurer's office, or at least evince a considerable amount of Seniency toward him, provided the stolen money were returned. Gen. Barlow deuled that any such intention actuated the State authorities; so far as he was concerned he was in favor of prosecuting the crim-smal. He believed that the State could bester afford to

The banquet was given infa private diningroom of the Union League Club, and was participated in by many distinguished representatives of the arts and letters in this city. The room was tastefully decomptu by the cifted young Italian artist, Vaitil. The health of Signor Salvini was proposed, in an eloquent speech, by Prof. Botta, and the guest of the evening responded in graceful and touching terms. Speeches were made by Mr. William Callen Bryant, Consul-General de Luca, the Rev. Dr. Bellows, Mr. Parke Godwin, and others, and the company separated

VERDICT IN THE KELSEY CASE.

The Coroner's inquest on the remains found floating in Oyster Bay Harbor, Long Island, on Aug. 29. and supposed to be those of Charles G. Kelsey, who was tarred and feathered on the night of Nov. 4, and who has not since been seen or heard from, culminated in a verdiet, on Saturday, after the jury had been out about ten hours. It is as follows:

hours. It is as follows:

An inquisition taken before Valentine Bayliss, one of the Coroners of Queens County, State of New-York, and a jury of twelve men, duly summoned and sworn, held at the office of A. A. Reed, in the village of Gyster Bay, on the remains found floating in the harbor of Gyster Bay, on the remains found floating in the harbor of Gyster Bay, on the remains sound floating in the harbor of Gyster Bay, on the remains are those of Charles G. Kelsey, a resident of the town of Huntington, Suffolk County, State of New-York, who disappeared from that piace on the night of Nov. 4, 1872. And the jury further find that the said Charles G. Kelsey came to his death by reason of brutal treatment received at the hands of certain persons to the jury unknown in said town of Huntington, on the night of Nov. 4, 1872; and the jury also find that Royal Sammis, George B. Banks, Arthur T. Hurd, William J. Wood, John McKay, and Henry R. Prime aided, abetted, and countenanced by their presence the committal of the gross ourrage and inhuman violence upon the person of the said Charles G. Kelsey which led to his death on the night of Nov. 4, 1872; and that Arthur M. Prime, Chandius B. Prime, S. H. Burgess, Radolph Sammis, and James McKay were accessories before the fact.

For the first time in several years a large number of the Hudson County liquor saloons were closed yesterday. Others were only partially closed and admitted customers by side and rear entrances. The occasion for this unusual conformity to the requirements of the law is helieved to be the fear of the saloon-keepers that indictingness would be served against them, as Judge Bedie, in his charge to the Hudson County Grand Jary, recently called attention to the fact that the Sunday liquor law was generally violated throughout the Paterson.—The new chapel of Grace M. E. Church was dedicated yesterday. The flev. R. L. Dashiell, D. D., of the Mission Rooms, New York, officiated. The Rev. H. A. Batts of Drow Seminary and others took part in the service... At Strange's silk and velvet mills the force of 200 hands has been employed recently on half time, and it is thought-doubtful if even this will continue lour, as the stock on hand is large and the demand small. Pligman & Myers, proprietors of the Jackson Mill, have begun working their hands on half time... The Danforth Locomotive Works have 650 men employed, and orders for five or six weeks work, when it is expected a further reduction will take place. The Grant Works have reduced the force gradually, and now have only 400 men working, and it is expected that a reduction from 250 to 60 will take place in the blacksmith department in a week or two... The Rogers Lecomotive Works shipped two engines for Petu, saurday... The Union Flock Manufacturing Company has temporarily suspended operations on account of the trethet. The panic has as yet had no effect on this establishment... James Grier was arrested. Saturday, for selling horse blankets without a license.
